23	amount shall be allocated based upon a formula to be determined by
24	the interstate commission, taking into consideration the population of	•
25	the state and the volume of interstate movement of offenders in each
26	compacting state, and shall adopt a rule binding upon all compacting	_
27	states that governs the assessment.
28	(c) The interstate commission shall not incur any obligation of any

34
becomes effective and binding upon legislative enactment of the compact into law by not less than thirty-five (35) states. The initial effective date shall be the later of July 1, 2001, or upon enactment into law by the thirty-fifth jurisdiction. Thereafter, the compact shall become effective and binding on any other compacting state upon enactment of the compact into law by that state. The governors of nonmember states or their designees will be invited to participate in interstate commission activities on a nonvoting basis before adoption of the compact by all states and territories of the United States. (b) Amendments to the compact may be proposed by the interstate commission for enactment by the compacting states. No amendment shall become effective and binding upon the interstate commission and the compacting states unless and until it is enacted into law by unanimous consent of the compacting states.
ARTICLE XI
WITHDRAWAL, DEFAULT, TERMINATION, AND JUDICIAL ENFORCEMENT

Part A. Withdrawal

- (a) Once effective, the compact continues in force and remains binding upon every compacting state. A compacting state may withdraw from the compact ("withdrawing state") by enacting a statute specifically repealing the statute that enacted the compact into law.
- (b) The effective date of withdrawal is the effective date of the repeal.
- (c) The withdrawing state shall immediately notify the chairperson of the interstate commission in writing upon the introduction of legislation repealing this compact in the withdrawing state. The interstate commission shall notify the other compacting states of the withdrawing state's intent to withdraw within sixty (60) days of its receipt.
- (d) The withdrawing state is responsible for all assessments, obligations, and liabilities incurred through the effective date of withdrawal, including any obligations the performance of which extends beyond the effective date of withdrawal.
- (e) Reinstatement following withdrawal of any compacting state shall occur upon the withdrawing state reenacting the compact or upon such later date as determined by the interstate commission.

 Part B. Default
- (a) If the interstate commission determines that any compacting state has at any time defaulted ("defaulting state") in the performance of any of its obligations or responsibilities under this compact, the bylaws, or any adopted rules, the interstate commission may impose

- (1) Fines, fees, and costs levied upon the county responsible for the default, or upon the state, if the state is responsible for the default, in amounts considered reasonable as fixed by the interstate commission.
- (2) Remedial training and technical assistance as directed by the interstate commission.
- (3) Suspension and termination of membership in the compact.
- (b) Suspension shall be imposed only after all other reasonable means of securing compliance under the bylaws and rules have been exhausted. Immediate notice of suspension shall be given by the interstate commission to the governor, the chief justice or the chief judicial officer of the state, the majority and minority leaders of the defaulting state's legislature, and the state council.
- (c) The grounds for default include, but are not limited to, failure of a compacting state to perform such obligations or responsibilities imposed upon it by this compact, interstate commission bylaws, or adopted rules. The interstate commission shall immediately notify the defaulting state in writing of the penalty imposed by the interstate commission on the defaulting state pending a cure of the default. The interstate commission shall stipulate the conditions and the time within which the defaulting state must cure its default. If the defaulting state fails to cure the default within the time specified by the interstate commission, in addition to any other penalties imposed herein, the defaulting state may be terminated from the compact upon an affirmative vote of a majority of the compacting states, and all rights, privileges, and benefits conferred by this compact shall be terminated from the effective date of suspension.
- (d) Within sixty (60) days of the effective date of termination of a defaulting state, the interstate commission shall notify the governor, the chief justice or the chief judicial officer of the state, the majority and minority leaders of the defaulting state's legislature, and the state council of such termination.
- (e) The defaulting state is responsible for all assessments, obligations, and liabilities incurred through the effective date of termination, including any obligations, the performance of which extends beyond the effective date of termination.
- (f) The interstate commission shall not bear any costs relating to the defaulting state unless otherwise mutually agreed upon between the interstate commission and the defaulting state. Reinstatement following termination of any compacting state requires both a reenactment of the compact by the defaulting state and the approval of the interstate

1	commission under the rules.
2	Part C. Judicial Enforcement
3	The interstate commission may, by majority vote of the members,
4	initiate legal action in the United States District Court for the District
5	of Columbia or, at the discretion of the interstate commission, in the
6	federal district where the interstate commission has its offices, to
7	enforce compliance with the provisions of the compact and its adopted
8	rules and bylaws against any compacting state in default or against a
9	county if the county is responsible for the default. If judicial
10	enforcement is necessary, the prevailing party shall be awarded all
11	costs of such litigation, including reasonable attorney's fees.
12	Part D. Dissolution of Compact
13	(a) The compact dissolves effective on the date of the withdrawal or
14	default of the compacting state that reduces membership in the
15	compact to one (1) compacting state.
16	(b) Upon the dissolution of this compact, the compact becomes void
17	and is of no further force or effect, and the business and affairs of the
18	interstate commission shall be wound up and any surplus funds shall
19	be distributed in accordance with the bylaws.
20	ARTICLE XII
21	SEVERABILITY AND CONSTRUCTION
22	(a) The provisions of this compact shall be severable, and if any
23	phrase, clause, sentence, or provision is considered unenforceable, the
24	remaining provisions of the compact shall be enforceable.
25	(b) The provisions of this compact shall be liberally constructed to
26	effectuate its purposes.
27	ARTICLE XIII
28	BINDING EFFECT OF COMPACT AND OTHER LAWS
29	(a) Except as provided in subsection (c), all lawful actions of the
30	interstate commission, including all rules and bylaws adopted by the
31	interstate commission, are binding upon the compacting states. All
32	agreements between the interstate commission and the compacting
33	states are binding in accordance with their terms. Upon the request of
34	a party to a conflict over meaning or interpretation of interstate
35	commission actions, and upon a majority vote of the compacting states,
36	the interstate commission may issue advisory opinions regarding such
37	meaning or interpretation.
38	(b) Any provision of this compact that violates the Constitution of
39	the State of Indiana is ineffective in Indiana.
40	(c) After July 1, 2008, a state may not send an offender to
41	Indiana who:

(1) has been convicted of murder, including an attempt or a

1	conspiracy to commit murder, in any jurisdiction;

8	remainder of the offender's life.
